

Artist: June Lerch

June moved to Madoc from Georgetown in 2004. June excelled in porcelain doll making, from using her own kiln in the porcelain process, to creating beautiful, hand-made, authentic clothing to dress them in. She enrolled in a few watercolour classes after arriving in Madoc, and continues to use this medium. June's inspiration for her paintings are old barns and flowers.

